

What a joyous start to the new year! In January we talked about winter and played with ice in our classroom – very cool (pun intended)! ☺ We even had a snowball fight and a rare Snow Day! We got to wear our PJs to school and we all worked together to make pancakes in class. So fun & so yummy.

To make up for our Snow Day, we WILL BE IN SCHOOL on Presidents' Day Monday, February 19th.

Here are some important upcoming events.

Friday, 02/02:	No School: Early Education Teacher Conference
Wednesday, 02/14:	Valentine's Party (12:30-1:30)
Monday, 02/19:	Presidents' Day (We WILL have class.)
Wednesday, 02/28:	Western Day (Time: TBA)
Monday, 03/05:	Class Photo will be taken (Bring your smile!)
Wednesday, 03/07:	Dad's Night (6:30-8:00)
March 12-16:	Spring Break

We will end February with Western Day. On that note, if you have a rocking horse you are willing to share, I know that Mrs. Avalos would love to borrow it. And as always, all parents/grandparents are invited to come to the gym and experience all the fun of Western Day. Don't forget to bring your camera!

I am absolutely amazed by how much each child has grown since September! Thank you so much for sharing your little blessings with us. It's truly an honor.

Love,
Mrs. Neiman & Mrs. Wilson
